Hi Everyone

I want to apologize to my team for the last week of conflict that has done nothing but cause unnecessary delays in our case, and as I look back on the events that lead up to these conflicts I realize that it was all by design. Henry C. Cunningham I believe is a person working for our defendants.

I remember the day Attorney McClure wanted me to meet with him I was against until she said he also had information he wanted to share.

Last month February when Cunningham came to the meeting with me, McClure and Andersen he came late in his hand was a long folder with documents similar to our closing documents which are long; he sat and listen to me and McClure go over the new evidence I had found pertaining to the three deeds Attorney Andersen had not yet arrived, Through the whole meeting he never submitted a single document nor provided any information.

Prior to leaving the meeting he slip me his number and asked that I call him he had a question from then on it became a game with his documents he was looking for them and could not find a single piece paper about the purchase of his house or his loan, however all his conversations with me was about OUR Evidence what documents did we have to prove our case. I prepared a RESPA Request for him to send to his servicer Wells Fargo this is a request that by law a servicer must respond to in a certain amount of days.

Last week Monday Cunningham text me that he had received a stack of documents in the mail, but he was in bed and drop them off in the morning he never dropped them off in the morning he never came, nor did I hear from him the whole day. He never had any intention of presenting any documents nor being in this case he was just to know what evidence he had to support our case.

When I mention to McClure that Cunningham could not be in the case because we do not know him, he has no documents their is no evidence to support his claims nothing her response was that Cunningham does not have to show us his documents, in other words we share all our evidence with Cunningham while he shares nothing with us was not a deal I was willing to accept.

As it stands Attorney McClure had said if I file a amended petition and took Cunningham out then she would draw from representing Perry's, Mullen and Perez's I never filed anything on Friday, however McClure filed a non-suit for Cunningham at his request (after being exposed for what he is) on Friday and I believe today she is filing her motion to withdraw from representing Perry's, Mullen and Perez's, I don't know if she had told any of you.

What I don't understand is what does Cunningham has to with Perry's, Mullen and Perez's as you don't even know him this clown was just seeking information for the other side. Come what may we are moving forward today:

Attorney Andersen is going to file our motion for declaratory judgment and on Wednesday we are filing about the loans we have come to far to let one person delay or have a negative influence on our case.

I thank you all for hanging in there and we will be fine.

Elizabeth Thomas
